=6 Brunswick A	16	7	9	64	80
8 Kilwinning A	16	4	12	54	91
9 Holy Cross	16	2	14	53	91

Brunswick B won Division 1, losing only one match and had a convincing win over Airdrie in the Div. 1 Cup final to secure a league and cup double.

The relegation battle turned into a tussle between Holy Cross and Kilwinning A with Holy Cross losing their Division 1 status by a single point. This left Kilwinning A with a match against Knightswood, runners-up from Division 2, to settle the final place available in Division 1. Kilwinning ran out easy winners with a comfortable 5:0 win.

Division 2	P	W	L	F	A
1 Maccabi	16	15	1	117	27
2 Knightswood	16	11	5	87	57

Drumchapel, Corrinna Whitaker and Craig Hardie, were worthy winners of Division 1 with East Kilbride A, Michael Connolly and Andrew Shields, close on their heels. It was encouraging to note the good performance of the 128th BB, Scott Allan, Graham White and Chris Provan, who in their first year in the league shared third position with North Ayrshire A.

Division 2 proved to be a very close finish between Knightswood, Sean Doherty and James Martin, and Drumchapel Girls, Stephanie McCallum and Natasha Milliken, with Knightswood winning the league by a point. Again it was encouraging to see good performances from Maccabi, Aaron Taylor, Simon Cohen, in third place, and sharing fourth place the 278th BB, Andrew Russell, Calum McInnes and Craig Johnston, and Holyrood B, Sam Murdoch, Philip Houston and Daniel Houston.

The standard of play, healthy numbers participating and the enjoyment level of the players was impressive throughout the season. The organisers plan to build on this success and a third division is a possibility for next sea

West Open

West of Scotland Open - 22/23 January 2005

Holyrood Sports Centre, Glasgow

Drumchpel's elite coach Ryan Jenkins (Wales) met Alan Cooke (England) in the final of the West of Scotland Open. Ryan won by 3 sets to 2 (5, -9, 5, -5, 7) in a very close match. Alan beat the home favourite Gavin Rungay 3/0 in the semis.

Ryan and Alan teamed up for the men doubles and took the title defeating Gavin Rungay and Ishikawa Takahar (Japan) 3/0.

In the ladies final, Adeline Coutant (France) beat Laura Rungay 3/1. Karin Eggar lost out to Adeline in the semis by 10/12 in the final set. Laura and Karin took the ladies doubles title with a 3/2 win over Adeline and her partner Corinna Whitaker.
