Premier Division

North Ayrshire secured the title for the third season running, proving once again to be the strongest team in the West. This result is even more impressive when their results for the last three years are examined – they haven't lost a match. Their doubles performances match the quality of their singles play and proved crucial in some of their 3-2 wins. Craig Hardie was the best singles player of the season with 100% record. Drumchapel B also had a great run securing third place with two junior players, Calum Main and Daniel Swaitek both posting impressive averages.

Flying the flag for the vets we had Tam Lawlor, Callum Gerrard and Peter Cameron all performing to a good level and it's good to see Peter (Über Vet) winning games rather than just giving everyone a hard game.

Division 1

Knightswood A won the Division 1 title at a canter with Hasitha Samaraweera recording a 100% in the averages and ably backed by Neil Docherty and Ian Hay. Individually, Adam Gaffney 44th B.B. had a great season and Roy Claxton is still up there with the best of them. Players to look out for next season are Basel Razouk and Graeme Donnelly who improved consistently over the season.

At the other end of the table Mearns are relegated and Garnethill face a play-off with Nomads.

Knightswood A also picked up the Maxwell Wilson Cup beating Drumchapel F 5-1 in the quarter-final, followed by a matching score line in the semi against Mearns and then, to complete the league and cup double, South Ayrshire B in the final by a 5-2 margin.

Division 2

Holyrood were just too strong this season with a combination of seasoned performers and improving juniors. It was good to see their juniors Callum Renton and Ross Grant holding their own against a wide variety of styles and experience. Bill Conroy, in his first experience of competitive TT, also did well for Holyrood particularly in the second half of the league programme. Martin Oestmann (Knightswood C) topped the player averages and should do well if he moves up to the first division next season. Nomads deserved their second spot and still have a chance of playing in the first division if they win the play-off.

Brunswick B find themselves propping up the wrong end of the league, followed closely by Maccabi B. The junior team of North Ayrshire came next but I'm sure they are a safe bet to finish in the top half next season.

Holyrood matched Knightswood A by completing the double and secured the House of Harris Cup in fine style. They beat Knightswood C 5-2 in the quarter-final, Maccabi A 5-1 in the semi-final and Kilwinning B 5-0 in the final.

Carluke did well to win the Walter McNeil Handicap Cup and appeared to get stronger each round they played.

Graham Crawford and Roll of Honour

Graham Crawford - Honorary Life Member

Liam Hughes, WoSTTL Secretary, and team-mate of Graham's, presented him with a plaque to recognise his Honorary Life Membership of the West of Scotland League.

Liam informed members that Graham has played for clubs which Liam never knew existed and some which even Graham has forgotten - a list which includes Hillington, Lenzie, Airdrie, Bishopbriggs and Brunswick. Graham has never been among the tournament high-fliers nor had major administrative positions in the League but, acting as a team secretary for tens of years and turning out for matches year-in, year-out, he represents that bedrock of committed players upon which the League's continued existence depends.

Graham started his West of Scotland League career in 1960 and has played continuously since then which means he has just completed his 51st season. He also reaches another milestone this summer, his 80th birthday, but is already written in as one of Brunswick's confirmed team players for next season. Fantastic! Congratulations Graham.

Junior League - Final Day

The Junior League reached its climax at the weekend and over the four sessions plenty of great Table Tennis was played. Division One produced a familiar situation with Drumchapel and Holyrood fighting it out for the top spot. Drumchapel ran out worthy winners but only just. They won the title by one point thanks to Bazel Razouk winning both his singles against Callum Renton and Philip Houston and Rory Boyd also beating Philip. Holyrood took some consolation from Callum Renton and Ross Grant sharing the Division's top player award.

As already reported Drumchapel's team of Yaser Razouk and Thomas Cairns won the Division 2 title with North Ayrshire taking second spot. Jordan McKinlay followed last year's Division 3 leading player award with the Division 2 award this year – well done Jordan.

Division Three produced another close finish with Drumchapel requiring to beat Knightswood to be sure of the title. Greg Robertson, Calum McNair and Stephen McDonald of Drumchapel delivered what was required, a 4-1 over their close rivals. Congratulations to this young team. Greg Robertson and James Kennedy (North Ayrshire) shared the leading player title.

Thanks to Alex Hardie for organising the league fixtures and results, Malcolm Smith for number crunching the league tables and averages and Sinclair Houston and Greg Taylor (and the others who helped) for setting up and dismantling the hall.

Not sure if we will be able to use Holyrood next year as the Junior League venue as they are closing early (3:00pm) on Saturdays from 1 April. Watch this space!

Six of the Best at the Inter League

Winning titles was the order of the day for the West of Scotland at the Scottish Inter League Championships which took place at Inverclyde, Largs on the 17 & 18 April.

The West teams won six titles out of a possible nine and also secured, for the second year in a row, the Stewart McGowan Trophy for the most successful League at the competition.

The following titles were won - Minor Girls, Minor Boys, Cadet Boys, Junior Boys, Ladies, and Veteran Men and we were also runners up in the Mens' and Minor Girls' events.

It was a first time win and in impressive style for the Minor Boys Team of Rory Boyd, Yaser Razouk and Justin Yang and in the Ladies event Maureen Moran and Tamami Igarashi won the title for the first time in 4 years.

The Junior Boys Team - Daniel Swiatek, Basel Razouk and Callum Renton retained the title for the third time. The team was undefeated over the weekend with Basel winning all his games and Daniel and Callum dropping just one game each.

The Cadet Boys - Adam Gaffney, Connor Moran and Callum Quinn - secured the title by virtue of countback. They lost a close match to North Ayrshire but a victory over Edinburgh, whom they tied with for the title, proved to be crucial.

Another first time winner was the team of Callum Gerard, Malcolm Hutton and Roy Claxton who won the Veterans Championships. They beat a strong Aberdeen side 3-2 in the final thanks to a win apiece from the three players including Roy snatching victory from the jaws of defeat, he was 4-10 down and 2 sets down before securing the win.

The other West teams all performed well – the Minor Boys B team of Greg Robertson, Ross McCrae and Allan Woodhouse secured three wins, the Minor Girls B team of Nadia Doherty and Caitlan Cameron were second and the Cadet Boys B team secured a number of fine wins which suggests a bright future for these players.

Congratulations to all teams, players and thanks to all NPCs, parents and supporters and to Moira and Russell Elliott who organised the food on the Saturday night.

West Schools Report

The West of Scotland Schools qualifying competition for the Scottish Secondary schools championships took place on Sunday, 31 January at Holyrood Sports Centre, Glasgow. With an entry of nearly 70, the best for many years, a full day of table tennis action was enjoyed by all players and spectators.

In addition to the Under 14, 16 and 18 age categories an under 12 competition for boys and girls along with an open doubles was added to the event.

Under 12 Girls

Nadia Doherty lived up to her top seed status and won all three of her matches. In her first match against Alisa Khalid she was taken to deuce in the first game but then moved into top gear and won the next two convincingly. Her next match was against one of the youngest competitors in the tournament, Emma Rhind. Nadia continued her good form but did drop the third end to Emma and then completed a hat trick of wins with a 3-0 victory over Hannah McCarron.

Under 12 Boys

15 players competed in this event and in Group 1, top seed Yaser Razouk had two 3-0 wins over Zaid Khalid and Cameron McKenzie. His third and final match against Allan Woodhouse was much closer but he won through 11-6 in the fourth game. In Group 2, Greg Robertson had solid victories over Stewart Williams (3-1), followed by two 3-0 wins against Stewart Horsfall and Adam Stevenson. Justin Yang was in fine form in Group 3 with 3-0 wins over Matthew Hughes, Alistair Grant and Paul Gorman. In Group 4, Luc Fitzpatrick emerged in first place with 3-0 wins over Fraser Cowie and Conor Patrick.

In the top group Yaser Razouk secured the Under 12 title with 3-0 wins over Justin Yang and Luc Fitzpatrick and a close four end victory over Greg Robertson. Justin Yang was a deserving runner up after a five end thriller against Greg Robertson. In the second group for runners up from the first round of matches Allan Woodhouse produced an impressive display winning all his matches 3-0, securing fifth spot overall.

Under 14 Boys

With an entry of 26 players the winner had to negotiate a first group then a group of three followed by a final. Adam Gaffney, Connor Moran, Rory Boyd, Jonathan Diack, Robert Matthew and Craig McGregor were all successful with this initial hurdle. Adam Gaffney, with wins against Rory Boyd (3-0) and Robert Matthew (3-0) manoeuvred his way into the final and Connor Moran had a slightly rockier ride to join him after a fifth end win against Craig McGregor and a 3-1 victory over Jonathan Diack.

In the final, Adam lost the first set against Connor but came back strongly winning the next three games 2, 9, 9 and the Under 14 title. Rory Boyd and Jonathan Diack secured second place in their groups and also qualify for the Scottish Schools Championships at the end of the February. Robert Mathew and Craig McGregor finished joint fifth, just missing out on a qualification place.

Under 16 Boys

Basel Razouk, top seed for this age group, duly took his place in the final group with 3-0 wins over Ross Grant, Joseph Wilson and Jordan Morris. Ross joined him with 3-0 victories over Joseph and Jordan. Meanwhile, Callum Renton was producing a similar performance in the second group with wins against Peter Liddell, Adam McMillan and fifth end win over Duncan Smith, who secured the runners up spot.

Basel, Callum, Duncan and Ross therefore all qualified for the Scottish Schools Finals but who would win the under 16 title?

Basel got off to the worst start possible losing to Duncan by a margin of 3 games to 1, while Callum rattled out a 3-0 win over practice partner Ross. Callum then made his intentions very clear with an emphatic 3-0 win over Duncan; and then Ross stayed in the hunt with a four game victory over Duncan. Basel then came back into contention and got a point on the board beating Ross 11-8 in the fifth. Callum and Basel then served up a very entertaining final match, with the winner takes all.

Callum made the better start, taking the first two ends 11-9, 11-6. Basel seemed to then get his timing back in gear and restored parity, winning the next two ends 11-6, 11-8. Callum, however, was not to be denied and won the final end 11-9 to secure his first West schools title.

In the second group Adam McMillan came out on top to secure fifth place with wins over Peter Liddell (3-0), Jordan Morris (3-1) and Joseph Wilson (3-0).

Consolation

Ross McNulty made up for his early exit in the under 14 event by winning the consolation singles from Cameron McNair

Open Doubles

An Open Doubles, with 16 pairs, was played to finish off the day. Top seeds Callum Renton and Ross Grant progressed to the semi finals without trouble and then faced Johnny Diack and Jacob Aitchison. They dropped the first end but then ran out comfortable winners -11, 5, 7, 8. In the other half, second seeds Connor Moran and Rory Boyd manoeuvred through a demanding quarter final tie against brother and sister act Nadia and Sean Doherty, winning 11-7 in the fifth. Their semi final was more straightforward, securing a 3-0 win against Adam Gaffney and Ross McNulty.

In a very entertaining five game final Callum and Ross managed to go one better than last year and secured the title from Rory and Connor -7, 6, 7, -5, 8.
